

WEST WALES RIVERS TRUST

Are you interested in your local river environment?

Do you want to improve it for both wildlife and the local community?

Would you like to develop your skills and experience and increase your employment potential?

Do you want to work with local, like-minded people?

If so why not volunteer with West Wales Rivers Trust?

No previous experience is necessary

We have many local projects that you can get involved in such as:

- River walkover surveys to identify issues and potential projects
- Habitat improvement projects for fish and other wildlife
- River Invertebrate sampling and monitoring
- Mapping and control of invasive weeds e.g. Himalayan Balsam
- Educational projects and events
- Fundraising activities
